

PG Applications

Certificate of English proficiency for Mr Alexander Dross

Mr Dross (student ID 9228982) is a Business Engineering student at Bochum University of Applied Sciences.

He is a very capable and communicative student in the English seminars at our university (two Business English and two Technical English classes) achieving good to very good grades in the second part of the teaching blocks.

Mr Dross' outstanding command of English enabled him to perform very successfully in the seminar discussions and the presentations required in the Business English seminar. His level of proficiency is at B2 level in speaking and writing; in reading and listening it is at C1 level. The

His level of English is equivalent to TOEFL 104 iBT.

The detailed TOEFL scaled scores are as follows:

- Reading 27
- Listening 26
- Speaking 26
- Writing 25

Therefore, I am sure that the year abroad in an English-speaking environment is going to enhance his academic and social skills because he is an open-minded and keen student.
